MEMORANDUM FOR President, Sergeant Audie Murphy Award Selection Board; Fort Lee, VA 23801

SUBJECT: CASCOM Sergeant Audie Murphy Board (Sergeant First Class Jane Doe, 123-45-6789)

1. I highly recommend Sergeant First Class Doe to appear before the CASCOM Sergeant Audie Murphy Board. Sergeant First Class Doe is a model NCO who continues to excel in all facets of her military career. She sets an outstanding example that all Soldiers should strive to emulate.

2. Sergeant First Class Doe’s superior performance is attributed to her constant pursuit of military excellence and personal pride. She has what it takes to go all the way to the top in this profession of arms. Without hesitation, I would place Sergeant First Class Doe in any position that requires trust, military knowledge, and higher responsibility.

3. I am truly honored to recommend an outstanding Noncommissioned Officer of high caliber to represent this organization in the CASCOM Sergeant Audie Murphy Board competition.

SERGEANT FIRST CLASS JANE D. DOE

Born: 20 April 1961      Hometown: Denver, CO      As of: 00 May 1998

Sergeant First Class Doe has been assigned to the Office of the Chief, Public Affairs, and U.S. Army Europe since July 20, 1999. Assigned as the Plans and Policy noncommissioned-officer-in-charge, she is the program manager for installation drawdown and writing public affairs guidance for USAREUR and Seventh Army. She is the senior enlisted person in the OCPA and has assumed the duties of the directorate sergeant major, such as assisting in CMF 46 enlisted personnel assignments and interfacing with the USAREUR Command Sergeant Major's office. She participated in REFORGER 92.

She was assigned to the 2d Armored Division in Garlstedt, Germany, December 8, 1990. Assigned as the Public Affairs noncommissioned-officer-in-charge, she arrived in time to help prepare the office to deploy to Saudi Arabia, January 8, 1991. During Operations Desert Shield and Storm, she supervised the historical documentation and newspaper coverage of the 2d Armored Division's participation in the ground war. She redeployed back to Germany, May 15, 1991. After only a few months back, she developed the contingency plan for public affairs of the division during the drawdown.

She was assigned to Fort Benjamin Harrison, IN, from January 1988 to December 1990. Before her assignment as an instructor in the Public Affairs Department, the Defense Information School, she worked in the Public Affairs Proponent Activity as the noncommissioned-officer-in-charge of Training Extension courses and the Army Correspondence Course Program for the public affairs field.

She was assigned to Fort Bragg, NC, from December 1981 to December 1987. She was assigned as an illustrator until her promotion to Sergeant First Class, when she decided to become a journalist. A 1985 Basic Journalism Course Distinguished Honor Graduate, she was the noncommissioned-officer-in-charge of Public Information at XVIII Airborne Corps and the public affairs supervisor of the 1st Corps Support Command (1st COSCOM) Public Affairs Office, Fort Bragg, NC. She participated in Operation Urgent Fury 83 (Grenada), and in exercises Brim Frost 85 (Alaska), Gallant Eagle 86 (California), and Sand Eagle 87 (Florida).

She was assigned as an illustrator with the 3d Support Command in Frankfurt, Germany from December 1978 to December 1981.
She received on-the-job training her first three months as an illustrator at the Training Aids Support Center, Fort Benning, GA, where she was assigned from October 1974 until November 1978. She received her basic training at Fort Jackson, SC, after enlisting August 6, 1974. She is a 1974 Bloomfield Senior High School graduate.

She is a graduate of the Army Advanced Public Affairs Course, College of Journalism and Mass Communications, University of South Carolina, giving her nine credit hours towards a Masters degree in Journalism. She has a Bachelor of Science degree, with honors, in History from Campbell University, North Carolina. She has an Associate of Arts degree in History from the University of Maryland.

She has been selected for attendance at the Air Force Senior Noncommissioned Officer Academy. She is a graduate of the Army Soldier Support Institute’s Master Fitness Trainer course. She graduated from the Army Logistics Management College’s Contract Officers Representative course as an Honor Graduate. She is a graduate of the Staff and Faculty Development Training course for Instructors/Developers. She is a Public Affairs Supervisor course graduate and an Honor Graduate of the Advanced Noncommissioned Officers course.

Her awards include the Bronze Star, the Joint Service Commendation Medal, the Army Commendation Medal (2d Oak Leaf Clusters), the Army Achievement Medal, Army Good Conduct Medal (6th Award), the National Defense Medal (with bronze star indicating second award), the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, the Southwest Asia Medal (with three campaign stars), the Noncommissioned Officers Professional Development Ribbon (3d award), the Army Service Ribbon, the Overseas Service Ribbon (2d award), and the Kuwait Liberation Ribbon.

She has been married for 16 years with one daughter, Jennifer, age seven. Her parents are John and Jane Smith of Clifton, NJ.

Community involvement includes participating in local playhouse productions, active in Girl Scouting, PTA, and volunteering at the local elementary school.

Her hobbies and sports interest includes Volks marching, reading, and gardening.
